The Manor

Abingdon Preparatory School

Boys aged 4-13

Abingdon Preparatory School offers a lively, stimulating and friendly environment with high expectations of behaviour and endeavour. The caring and encouraging atmosphere promotes independence, self confidence and respect. Pupils flourish in a school where academic studies are carefully balanced with the creative and performing arts, sport and a wide variety of extra curricular activities.

The School enjoys a strong academic performance with the majority of boys moving on to Abingdon and with an increasing number of awards.

An excellent sporting reputation has recently been enhanced by the opening of stunning new facilities, including a new sports hall and changing rooms, which complement 30 acres of playing fields and an indoor swimming pool.

Main entry ages: 4+ and 7+.

The Manor Preparatory School

Girls aged 3-11 and Boys aged 3-7

The Manor offers a warm and supportive environment that challenges and cherishes each of its pupils ensuring their strengths are nurtured and any weaknesses supported. The children enjoy a wealth of extra-curricular activities in addition to a broad curriculum which fosters high academic standards and allows each and every child to fulfil their potential.

The Manor has purpose-built, state-of-the-art facilities on a site which includes a Georgian manor and acres of playing fields.

Entry is usually at 3+, 4+ and 7+ although the School welcomes children at any stage if there are places available.
